FINE FURNITURE

Dream Collections

Solid wood furniture sets itself apart by—well, its solid wood. In other words, the story behind fine furniture begins with the timelessness, durability, and the individual beauty of natural hardwoods.

It's the responsibility of furniture craftsmen to add the touch that turns carefully selected hardwoods into masterpieces made for your home. The natural beauty of solid wood only retains its appeal when construction is characterized by creativity, integrity and simple attention to detail.

At Black River Furnishings, we also invite you to contribute your creativity to your fine furniture. We custom build Black River furniture to your specifications and for your home.
